

NANTUCKET ANGLERS' CLUB NEWSLETTER – NOVEMBER 2009

OCTOBER RECAP

Lunches and Dinners are now officially over for the season. Thanks to all who made it another great year. The Inshore Classic came to an end on Oct. 3 with the awards ceremony that was well attended. The Cranny Cranston Tournament was another success and the brother team of Ken and Harold Wiggin took 1st place with 23.7188 pts., second went to Kristina Jelleme and Mickey Beamish with points totaling 22.275, and 3rd went to the team of Mike O'Neil and Kyle Snell with 19.7375 points. The Halloween party was another smashing success with special thanks to Kristina Jelleme for the treasure hunt, and Jan Davis for the rest. Thanks again ladies!

The Club will be closed Thursday, November 26th. Happy Thanksgiving!!!
Attention! – The sign up sheets are up for the 2010 hors d'oeuvres and Sunday Suppers. Don't miss your opportunity to do your part.
Quick note sent to me from a member-----

NOVEMBER EVENTS

November 7, 2009 – WINE TASTING EVENT

Join in with an advanced sign up and hurry – it's limited to 20 people. Must prepay - $15.00 per person. This wine tasting will expand your knowledge and offer new choices to accompany another scallop dinner or Thanksgiving feast!!! It will feature two reds and two whites that pair well with seafood and poultry, with a sampling of cheeses and seared scallops. Event starts promptly at 6:30 p.m.. Sign up deadline will be Wed. the 4th.

November 14th- FRIED SCALLOP DINNER

$12.50 per person – advance payment only.
Maximum of 75 people – so sign up early. Sign up deadline of Wed. 11th-. Ray Owen will be preparing the dinner of Scallops, French Fries, and Cole Slaw.
Why not start off the season with some fantastic food!

We are looking for volunteers either commercially or recreationally to donate the scallops needed for the dinner. Please contact the Club if you are able to help.
